

European Dialogue 2025

The European Academy for Democracy in cooperation with the Wilfried Martens Centre for European Studies will organize a conference on current European topics entitled European Dialogue on 7th and 8th November 2025 at the DUO Hotel in Prague (Teplická 492, Prague 9).

This year's event will focus primarily on the EU security situation, current issues of European policy and the impact of the parliamentary elections on the Czech Republic's position on the EU.

Program:

Friday 7.11.:

15:15 - Opening

Jan Málek - European Academy for Democracy

Gavin Synnott - Wilfried Martens Centre for European Studies

15:30 - 16:45 - I. Block - Security situation in Europe in the context of the conflict in Ukraine,

Jan Jireš, security analyst

17:00 - 18:15 - II. Block - The phenomenon of artificial intelligence from a European perspective,

Tereza Bartoníčková, President of the Internet Institute (tbc)

18:30 - 19:45 - III. Block - Transatlantic bond, current form of EU-US relations

Gavin Synnott, Project Manager Wilfried Martens Centre for European Studies

20:00 - Dinner

Saturday 8.11.:

9:00 - 10:15 - IV. Block - Current issues of European politics,

Aneta Zachová - Editor-in-Chief
EURACTIV.cz

10:30 - 11:45 - V. Block - Czech foreign policy in a turbulent world

Eduard Hulicius - Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Vice-Chairman of the KDU-ČSL

11:45 -13:00 - VI. Block - Economic Perspectives of the Czech Republic and the EU in the Time of Tariffs

Benjamin Činčila - economist and MP (tbc)

13:00 - Lunch, end of the conference

Participation in the conference is free, but the number of places is limited. You need to register here: <https://forms.gle/3h7oAdon3GnDNoF99> or by email akademie@ead.cz , the earlier the better, but no later than October 30.

Parking is possible in the hotel area.

The Seminar receives financial support from the European Parliament. Sole liability rests with the organiser, the European Parliament is not responsible for the activity.